

Quantum models of (1+1)-dimensional oscillators in general relativity

Ion I. Cotăescu

*The West University of Timișoara,
V. Pârvan Ave. 4, RO-1900 Timișoara, Romania*

ABSTRACT

A new family of geometric models of relativistic oscillators is presented showing that all these models are analytically solvable by using traditional methods. We discuss the parameterization of these models and their specific properties which could help one to better understand the framework of the relativistic quantum mechanics in the sense of general relativity.

PACS: 04.62.+v, 03.65.Ge