

MEASURING THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A SOLAR CELL

Emilian Morintale,
Department of Physics II, University of Craiova,
Str. A. I. Cuza 13, Craiova-200585, Romania.

Abstract: The purpose of this paper is to design an experimental device in order to measure the characteristics $I = f(U)$ și $P = f(U)$ of polycrystalline silicon solar cells. Also, it is meant to give graphic to these characteristics. The final goal is to automatize these measurements.