

Due to the special conditions generated by the spread of Covid-19, the Conference ICAMNM 2020 and the Workshop on Industrial Mathematics and Computer Science will be organized exclusively online using the ZOOM platform.

Some test sessions will be organized on October 23 (Friday) starting at 11.00 and 19.00 EET (East European Time) and on October 26 (Monday) starting at 19.00 EET.

The list of participants, the preliminary programme of the two joint events, and the abstracts booklet were posted on the website of the Conference. The participants are kindly asked to notify the Organizing Committee of any changes they deem necessary.

Please, also note that the deadline for submitting the full text of the paper has been extended to October 20.
