

CONTENTS

PAPERS PRESENTED AT THE International Symposium
Rereading Jean-Paul Sartre, today
Szeged, French Alliance, April 12, 2013 (II)

GABRIELLA FARINA
The significance of the emotions and the rediscovery of affect in J.-P. Sartre's thought	5
GIAMPAOLO BORGHELLO
Sartre before and after '68	13
ANDRÁS DÉKÁNY
Jean-Paul Sartre and the transition to structuralism	28
MIHÁLY BÁCSKAI
« What is Literature? » Sartre's Conception of Committed Literature	35

HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY

ADRIANA NEACȘU
The dignity of the human condition in Porphyry's work	42
ION TĂNĂSECU
The role of truth-makers in Franz Brentano's dissertation	59
ANA BAZAC
About suicide in modernity: before and after Henri Bergson and Albert Camus' theory	71

PHILOSOPHY OF MIND AND COGNITION SCIENCES

MIGUEL LÓPEZ ASTORGA
Mental models and syntactic rules: A study of the relations between semantics and syntax in inferential processes	107
TEODOR NEGRU
Self and Embodiment: Human Person from an Enactive Point of View	118

PHILOSOPHY OF COMUNICATION

EMANUEL KULCZYCKI

Communication History and its Research Subject

132

PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY

IONUȚ RĂDUICĂ

The method of deconstruction of history on Hans Blumenberg

156

REVIEWS

MARIN BĂLAN (coordinator)

Athens and/or Jerusalem. Essays on the relationship between science and religion

(Adriana Neacșu)

167

GABRIEL VACARIU

More troubles with cognitive neuroscience.

Einstein's theory of relativity and the multiverse

(Adriana Neacșu)

170

AUTHORS/CONTRIBUTORS

174