

New Call for Papers

No. 21/2009

Revista de Stiinte Politice is currently inviting submission for No. 21/2009. We welcome articles on the following subject: Central and Eastern Europe: post-communist societies in transition.

The Editorial Board encourages scholars, practitioners, policymakers, and students to submit articles, essays, and book reviews for possible publication.

Revista de Stiinte Politice is a Romanian journal of political science published by the Universitatea din Craiova. ISSN 1584-224X. Its website provides free access to all issues (usually 2 per annum) published since no. 6/7 2005. These include articles, comments and book reviews in English, French and Romanian (not all materials are translated into English). Each issue contains materials on European studies, international security, post-communist transition political economic and politics and Romanian politics, elections, political parties and political systems.

Manuscripts should be submitted with both text and footnotes typed and single-spaced. Footnotes should comply with the Chicago Style of Citation. Please consult The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. for details. Additionally, The Chicago Manual of Style website at: <http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools.html> provides a comprehensive list of possible sources and their proper citation. Please refer to the examples for the humanities notes style rather than the examples for the author-date system. A separate bibliography is not required.

In addition to the manuscript, authors must include an accurate abstract of not more than 250 words, as well as a resume or CV. Authors must also ensure that their submissions include an email address and phone number at which they can be reached throughout the review period.

Manuscripts will be accepted with the understanding that their content is unpublished previously. If any part of an article or essay has already been published, or is to be published elsewhere, the author must inform the Editorial Board of the Revue at the time of submission.

The Editorial Board greatly appreciates all submissions and will attempt to notify authors of acceptance or rejection as quickly as possible.

For further information and submissions, please contact: parmena2002@yahoo.com, ghitza_roumanie@yahoo.com, cata.georgescu@yahoo.com, with "Manuscript Submission: [TITLE OF ARTICLE]" in the subject heading.

We particularly encourage the submission of articles and essays under 15,000 words (including footnotes). These guidelines will be a factor in consideration for publication.

All submissions should be received no later than May 1, 2009.
